DRUMS

The image displays a drum score for the song "Kansas City 2". It consists of ten staves of music. The first staff begins with a bass clef and a 4/4 time signature. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Chord symbols E, F, G, and H are placed above specific notes in the first, second, fourth, and sixth staves, respectively. The notation uses 'x' marks to indicate specific drum sounds, and some notes have a '5' above them, possibly indicating a fifth fret or a specific drum head. The score concludes with a double bar line and a final flourish of notes.

DRUMS

The drum notation is presented on ten staves. The first staff begins with a circled '1' and a bass clef. The notation consists of rhythmic patterns represented by 'x' marks on a five-line staff, with stems indicating the direction of the drum strokes. The patterns are organized into measures, with some measures containing triplets marked with a '3' and a horizontal line. A circled '2' appears at the start of the third staff, and a circled 'K' appears at the start of the fifth staff. The notation includes various rhythmic values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The final staff is labeled 'FILL IN' and contains a drum icon and a star symbol, followed by a series of diagonal slashes on a five-line staff.
